Leadership Perspective

Maha Al Turkait

Dear Members of the Stellar Education Community,

We have collectively pondered the question of who is responsible for sustainability – students, teachers, school staff, administration, or all members of our community, each in their unique roles and capacities.

Through concerted efforts, we have underscored the importance of everyone being accountable for their actions and duties, thereby fostering a culture of responsibility.

I am pleased to note that this culture is taking root, with school leaders setting exemplary standards.

A positive culture, especially one significantly impacts the well-being and success of our students and the entire school community. It is imperative that we all continue to support and promote such initiatives.

Moving forward, our school remains committed to nurturing this culture through innovative ideas and programs. Your ongoing support and that of our school owners are instrumental in driving this initiative forward.

Warm regards,
